

NEW RIVER

The term “new” typically meant a place newly mapped, because many place names in New Brunswick come from descriptive English or French terms. There is not an indigenous name for New River documented, but the region was part of the Wolastoqiyik territory, and many places originally had indigenous names that were replaced with English or French descriptive names.

<https://www.canadiansky.co.uk/new-brunswick-holidays/enjoying-the-beaches-of-new-brunswick>

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History_of_New_Brunswick