7. Business – Introductions, wants and needs in the community – reviewed the list from the public engagement sessions listed in the terms of reference booklet. Looking forward to perhaps having a couple of community events, not Fundy Fisherman’s Day this year as the planning is more extensive than time a lots. Some members went away with questions on possible programs for the future. Possibility of bike trail for children and adults was very popular. Possibility of Yoga or other fitness activities being researched. The discussion was had that we are currently looking at land opportunities within Fundy Shores, some of which could possibly be used for events or recreation. Funding and volunteers would be required for these events.
8. Next Meeting – There will be a phone from me to all members on April 12th, 2023 to further discuss the date of the next meeting and review what we have come up with for events we may be able to take on this year.
